Welfare – Probian Len advised that Probian Alf Jones has had by-pass surgery and is progressing. Probian Ken Gosby thanked Welfare Officer Len and members for the attention and kindness during his illness. Past President Alan expressed similar sentiments.

Historian – Past President David thanked Probian Lerryn for the photographs taken at our Annual Luncheon.

Profile – Probian John Horton told of his early life in Portsmouth and of his schooling and apprenticeship in Portsmouth Naval Dockyard before becoming an engineer. His interest in soccer was as a player and referee. He migrated to Australia in 1972 as a Tech Ed teacher, retired in 1987 and moved to the Central Coast in 1989.

Lucky Door Prize – won by Probian John Dunn.

Guest Speaker – After the morning tea break President John introduced our guest speaker Peter Forbes, who gave us a revealing insight into the workings of the State Emergency Services. Many were surprised at the dedication of these people who give their time without pay. After numerous questions President John presented Peter with a Probus spoon as a reminder of his visit to Kincumber Probus Club.
